

OPEN TO TEACHERS
FROM ALL
THREE SECTORS

Leading innovative & exemplary teaching

Leading formative assessment and school-based action research

AISWA and Brightpath are pleased to offer an extended course designed to support you with leading innovative and exemplary teaching as well as leading formative assessment and school-based action research.

The course will not only help you demonstrate achievement of key exemplary teaching and leadership competencies, but it will also inspire your teaching and provide you with warm, collegial support.

Using quality literature to explicitly teach writing

- ★ West Australian authors Mark Greenwood and Frané Lessac and AISWA's curriculum experts will share ways of using quality literature to invigorate, stimulate and explicitly teach their students to write engaging stories.
- ★ Dr Sandy Heldsinger will show you how to devise action research and how to use Brightpath to evaluate student growth in learning.
- ★ The research completed in the course may also help you when applying for promotion.

Course benefits

This course will:

1. help you demonstrate achievement of key exemplary teaching and leadership competencies
2. inspire your teaching
3. provide you with warm, collegial support.

Target years

Primary teachers – open to teachers in all three school sectors

Course dates

Workshop 1: Monday 7 September 2020

Workshop 2: Monday 23 November 2020

What's involved

Collect and assess your students' narrative writing

Workshop 1

- Learn how to use literature to inspire writing
- Learn about action research

Plan and implement an innovative teaching program

Collect and assess your students' narrative writing

Workshop 2

- Reflect on and evaluate the success of your innovation

At the end of the project you will be well placed to present your work to your colleagues and at school conferences and networking events.

Resources

- ★ A range of children books to use with your students
- ★ Booklets to help you use these books as the springboard for teaching writing.

Book now!

www.brightpath.com.au